

CASA DE AMÉRICA AWARD
Aid to the post-production of latin american films
59th San Sebastian Festival, 2011

Casa de América Award for Aid to the Post-Production of Latin American Films, carrying €10,000 (gross).

All cash prizes are subject to tax. This tax deduction will be applied in compliance with existing legislation and the international agreements signed with each country.

Conditions of the award.

The winner of the CASA DE AMÉRICA Award shall, very clearly and alongside the Casa de América logo, include the following in its credits:

Films in Progress Award -CASA DE AMÉRICA
Aid to the post-production of latin american films
59th San Sebastian Festival, 2011

From the moment of signing the CASA DE AMÉRICA contract, the winning film will have the right to one special screening, within a strictly cultural environment, at Cine Iberia (its permanent film theatre). This requirement must be fulfilled independently of whether or not the film is released in Spain. The screening date will be set by mutual agreement between Casa de América and the director and producer of the film. For its part, Casa de América understands that this requirement will be included immediately a contract is signed with any Spanish distribution and/or exhibition company acquiring the screening rights for the film, in order to avoid eventual conflict of interests.

For its part, CASA DE AMÉRICA undertakes to pay the director of the film winning the Award the sum of €10,000 (gross) towards its post-production. Under no circumstances can this sum be received by a person other than the director of the film.

Casa de América
Ateneo Americano
Films in Progress 2011